The Junior Creators (Group C) is a joyful and nurturing drama and art program @ Studio 77 specially designed for children aged 5 to 6. This lively program invites young learners to discover their unique voice and build courage through fun, creative expression. Every session is filled with exciting activities that encourage children to participate actively, express themselves freely, and learn the value of cooperation—all in a warm, supportive, and caring environment where they feel safe to explore and grow.

Led by our passionate CEO, Teacher Emil, who brings 22 years of global education experience teaching children and adults, the program combines expert guidance with a playful atmosphere. Children are inspired to embrace creativity, develop confidence, and make meaningful connections with their peers as they embark on this delightful journey of self-discovery and artistic exploration.

Through engaging drama games, imaginative storytelling, and hands-on art projects, The Junior Creators (Group C) offers a vibrant space where learning becomes a joyful adventure—building the foundation for lifelong communication skills and a love for creative expression.

What Your Child Will Experience

- Development of basic communication and expression skills.
- Building early social skills such as sharing and cooperation.
- Increased courage to try new things in a supportive setting.
- Introduction to creative arts as a form of self-expression.
- Improved listening and ability to follow instructions.
- Term One Showcase: Children will present a recorded clip of a 3-minute presentation featuring storytelling, speech, or monologue.

The script will be created collaboratively during the term.
