The Big Kids is an engaging enrichment program @ Studio 77 designed for children aged 7 to 8 who want to develop social skills, effective communication, and confidence through drama and art activities. This program goes beyond traditional lessons by nurturing strong presence, etiquette, and respectful interaction in a supportive and fun environment, led by CEO, Teacher Emil Antoan, with 22 years of global education experience, teaching both children and adults.

What Your Child Will Experience

- Social Skills & Etiquette: Children learn practical social skills and good manners through interactive role-plays and drama games designed to build respect and awareness in everyday situations.
- Effective Communication: Focus on clear verbal and non-verbal communication including voice projection, body language, and active listening to help children express themselves confidently.

- Presentation & Confidence Building: Through structured activities, kids develop poise and presence while practicing public speaking and presentation skills in a warm, encouraging setting.
- Collaborative Drama & Art: Group projects encourage teamwork and cooperation, using creative arts as a medium to explore interpersonal skills and storytelling.
- Inspiration Action Projects: Activities that inspire positive social behavior and personal growth through creative expression.
- Excursion: An exciting outing will be planned during the program to deepen understanding of social interaction and performance arts (location to be decided).
- Final Presentation: All learning outcomes from each term culminate in a lively year-end role-play performance demonstrating etiquette, communication skills, and confidence.
